19 On February 9, 2007 Martin Isias pled guilty to Count Two 20 of a 21 count third superseding indictment. Martin Isias is 21 currently scheduled to be sentenced on August 7, 2007. There 22 are several sentencing issues which will require the defense to 23 present documentation to the probation office. Defense 24 investigator, Robert Storey, has now interviewed relevant 25 defense witnesses and obtained transcripts necessary for 26 sentencing. Mr. Isias is in the process of submitting informal 27 objections to probation based on this information. Mr. Isias 28 will request an evidentiary hearing on disputed issues effecting sentencing.

Therefore Mr. Isias requests that his judgment and sentencing be continued to October 23, 2007 if that date is available with the Court. The government and the probation

1 office have no objection to this request. The parties request 2 the following schedule:
